

The Republican Liberty Caucus

"I served in Congress for many years as an elected libertarian Republican. The RLC has proven to be effective at electing other libertarian Republicans to office."

- U.S. Rep. Ron Paul (R-TX)

Founded in 1991, the Republican Liberty Caucus exists to promote individual liberty, limited government, and free enterprise within the Republican Party by: (a) promoting these ideals among Party officials and its various organizations, (b) identifying and supporting candidates sympathetic with these ideals, and (c) promoting Caucus membership among Republican Party registrants, officials, and officeholders.
